New Editor

Allow me to introduce myself. My name is Jim Durham and philately is my passion in life. I have been a serious stamp collector for over 60 years or almost half as long as SAPA has existed. I have been a member of SAPA for only 1½ years, but I should have joined 20 years ago when I moved here from Fort Collins, Colorado. Before that I lived in Richland, Washington where, for about 12 years, I was the editor of The Triangle, the newsletter of the Tri-Cities Stamp Club. I am honored to be The Philatex editor. I hope to bring some positive changes to The Philatex during the next months. It is my goal to make the newsletter a little more educational, fun, and informative. I will welcome any and all of your comments and suggestions at: jsdurham4@gmail.com.

Stamp News:

USPS Provides Sneak Peek at 2026 Stamps

On Wednesday, October 29, the USPS announced many of the stamps that will be issued during 2026. The Postal Service underscored its "commitment to celebrating the artistry and storytelling that make stamps so special. Each stamp is a work of art – an entryway into a larger story that connects people, places, and moments in history." The Postal Service that the new issues will "inspire and excite collectors and admirers alike." To view the entire article, including images, click, copy and paste, or type:
