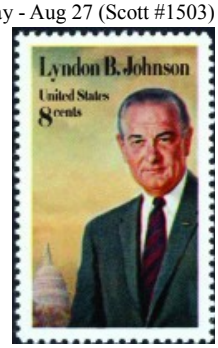
Independence Day - July 4 (Scott #2276)

Lyndon Baines Johnson Day - Aug 27 (Scott #1503)

Editor's Corner



Independence Day On July 2, 1776, the Second Continental Congress voted to approve a resolution of independence that declared the United States independent from Great Britain. After voting for independence, Congress turned its attention to the Declaration of Independence, which had been prepared by a Committee of Five, with Thomas Jefferson as its principal author. Congress debated and revised the wording of the Declaration, finally approving it on July 4. A day earlier, John Adams had written to his wife Abigail:

The second day of July, 1776, will be the most memorable epoch in the history of America. I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations, from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forever more.

Adams's prediction was off by two days. From the outset, Americans celebrated independence on July 4, the date shown on the much-publicized Declaration of Independence, rather than on July 2, the date the resolution of independence was approved in a closed session of Congress.

Lyndon Baines Johnson Day is a legal state holiday in Texas. It falls every year on August 27, to mark the birthday of U.S. President Lyndon Baines Johnson. After Johnson died in 1973, the Texas State Legislature created a legal state holiday to be observed every year on August 27 to honor the 36th president of the United States, one of their state's native sons. The holiday is optional for state employees and state offices do not close. (info from wikipedia)

WE WELCOME VISITORS

SAPA is always happy to welcome visitors. We hope you will enjoy our activities and wish to join us as members.

All visitors are welcome to purchase stamps at our auctions, bourses and bag nights. Anyone wishing to sell or trade at our meetings must be a member.

AUCTION ETIQUETTE :

Be sure to get your Bidder's number card before the auction starts. Come early and look over the lots for sale before the auction. During the auction, lots will be identified by their lot number and a brief description of the lot.

When bidding for a lot, please raise your Bidder's Number card and keep it up until you no longer wish to bid. Flipping the card up and down is confusing for the auctioneers.

Please keep extraneous conversation to a minimum. This makes it easier for everyone to hear what the auctioneer is selling, and allows the auctioneer to more easily keep track of the bidding.

While your purchases will be given to you during the auction, please wait until the end of the auction to pay for them. Your name will be called as the tallys are completed. Those who are only buying will be called first. Buyers who are also sellers will be called next. Checks made out to S.A.P.A. are acceptable. Sellers with unsold lots should be sure to pick up their lots before leaving.

Please be sure to return the Bidder's Number cards so that we can use them again in the following auctions.

We look forward to meeting you.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It's time once again to jot down a few notes. You'll find me at the time of this writing down in the lovely state of Florida. I have taken in a few of the typical sights that tourists like to do. Spent time from St Augustine to Key West, with of course Disney Land taking a couple of days.

To bad I had to be in the area watching the Spurs lose the last two games. Being there when I was means I missed our club's Summer Picnic. I hurt not being able to be with the rest of the group laughing and singing. OH Yeah!!

This newsletter comes out after the party, so my notes look and sound funny. But I can bet that a good time was had by all. I'm sorry that some of our members (including me) could not have been there. Well there is our Christmas Gala coming, so plan to spend your time with us all then.

Bye for now. Have a great summer.

John Clay

PROGRAM NOTES

August 16, 2013 "I Can't Believe It's A Stamp" By Lea Senghaas

Lea tells me that she has been attracted to philatelic "weirdoes". Now hold on folks—she assures me she is not talking about the members of the San Antonio Philatelic Association. (Although most philatelists have their own "life-styles".)

Nevertheless, Lea has compiled what appears to be a very interesting collection of stamps that are "strange."

Lea has always presented interesting programs, and I for one am looking forward to hers.

Yours in Philately, Pat Richmond

Oddities and Unusual Stamps Program

"The Czech Republic"
by Brother Loch
April 19, 2013

Brother Loch began his presentation with a short history of the origin of the republic. The Provisional Constitution was adopted November 13, 1918. The national assembly produced 4 major laws: 1) Currency separation law: 50% of all privately held banknotes were withdrawn. All bank deposits were blocked and converted into a 1% compulsory loan and the Kc (Crown) was the currency. The bank was now in Prague, not Vienna. 2) Land Reform: All estates more than 150 Ha. of arable land or 250 of land in general was expropriated. The Land Office then sold off the parcels. 3) Incorporated (stock) companies had to transfer their offices to where the factories were located. 4) The language law designated Chechoslovak (which doesn't exist!) as the national language. People in reality could continue with their local language. If you are interested in more information about the Czech Republic you can Google it to find a wealth of interesting information.

Brother Loch had a wide range of content in his collection. At right is one of the First Day Issue Covers that was in his collection. ▸ ▸

Brother Loch's collection was enjoyed by all present.

Thank you, Brother Loch for sharing your vivid collection.

Yours in Philately, Pat Richmond

"Volunteer Excellence Award hails three exemplary veterans"

By Cheryl Harrison

Warfighter and Family Readiness, Marketing

The Volunteer Excellence Award is a lifetime achievement award authorized by the U.S. Air Force chief of staff that recognizes persons who perform outstanding volunteer community service of a sustained, direct and consequential nature.

To be eligible for the VEA, a volunteer must have performed within the local civilian community or in the military family community. It is intended to recognize exceptional long-term community support and not a single act or achievement.

The nominee must have performed services on a volunteer basis, not as a part of a tasking and must not have resulted in personal gain.

It is said by those who work within the confines of Building 2797, that Charles Shelby is not only a terrific volunteer, he is a fixture.

Shelby's volunteer service began in 1988, following 31 years of military service in the Army and seven years with the U.S. Postal Service as a mail carrier in the city of Alamo Heights.

Shelby has volunteered more than 22,000 hours at the former Army Community Service, now known as Warfighter and Family Readiness.

"I started working four days a week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings and Thursday afternoons," Shelby said. "But the traffic got so bad going home in the afternoon, I dropped Thursdays.

"I don't get paid for volunteering, I don't need the money, and I get all the coffee I can drink," Shelby said when asked why he enjoys his volunteer career. "But my goal is to match my active duty time. I only need a little over six more years to do that. I will be 93 then!"
