Editor's corner

For many years, members of our club have waited eagerly for the new circuit books to arrive. When they do, people gather around the table and start perusing the books looking for stamps that will fit perfectly into their collection. They also discuss various stamps with others, and spot stamps that a friend might like to buy.

SAPA receives books from two different circuits: American Philatelic Society (APS), and Oklahoma Philatelic Society (OPS). Each has a member who is in charge of receiving the books, making sure they are available at meetings, checking to see that the payment for the stamps is properly accounted for, and then returning the books and money to their originators. That's a lot of time and energy expended for the enjoyment of all our club members.

These folks deserve our thanks for all their efforts on our behalf.

Jane Fohn is the lady who takes care of the Oklahoma circuit books. She took over from Morgan Williams in 2006, when he was no longer able to do the job. Jane, you are doing a wonderful job. Thank you.

Pat Ryan took care of the APS circuit books for many years, but recently has been unable to do it anymore because of health problems. Thank you, Pat, you did a great job for us, and you are missed at club meetings.

The APS circuit books are now being handled by John Clay, who assures us that he will continue to run the whole procedure as Pat did. If anyone has any questions, he can be reached at <jrclay50@sbcglobal.net>. Thank you, John, for taking on this responsibility.

Lea Senghaas & Dora Roberts

Dora says that dues reminders will be sent out in October. Remember that if you pay before December 31st, dues are only $12.The USPS has only a few stamps suitable for Halloween, so I thought I would check Zazzle, and see what they had. Boggle! Just in the Halloween section, they had 232 pages of Halloween designs, each page showing 30 stamps. That's 6,960 different designs. No wonder people order from them! Lea

WE WELCOME VISITORS

SAPA is always happy to welcome visitors. We hope you will enjoy our activities, and wish to join us as members.

All visitors are welcome to purchase stamps at our auctions, bourse, and bag nights. Anyone wishing to sell or trade at our meetings must be a member.

AUCTION ETIQUETTE:

Be sure to get your Bidder's number card before the auction starts. Come early and look over the lots for sale before the auction. During the auction, lots will be identified by their lot number and a brief description of the lot.

When bidding for a lot, please raise your Bidder's Number card and keep it up until you no longer wish to bid. Flipping the card up and down is confusing for the auctioneers.

Please keep extraneous conversation to a minimum. This makes it easier for everyone to hear what the auctioneer is selling, and allows the auctioneer to more easily keep track of the bidding.

Please wait until the end of the auction to pay for your purchases. Your name will be called as the tallys are completed. Those who are only buying will be called first. Buyers who are also sellers will be called next. Checks are acceptable, made out to S.A.P.A.

Sellers with unsold lots should be sure to pick up their lots before leaving.

Please be sure to return the Bidder's Number cards so that we can use them again in the following auctions.

We look forward to meeting you.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Boursette held on July 24th did not lack for stamps Some of our members were set up and the APS and Oklahoma stamp circuits were available. Jack Virta had the Scott Catalogues on hand, and Richard Rose began moving the SAPA library into the building. Attendance was moderate—SAPA needs our members to support this Saturday activity in order to continue it. Pat Richmond took the pictures at the first Boursette that are featured in this Philatex.

We made an error when we printed the date for the August Boursette on the 22nd. This Boursette had to be moved to Saturday, August 29th as the TSDA would be in town on that weekend. From now on the Boursette WILL NOT be held in the months that TSDA will be in San Antonio. All the rest of the months, the Boursetts will be scheduled on the Saturday following the first SAPA meeting each month. Times continue to be from 9am to 1pm.

Soon I will appoint a Nominations Committee to select our officers to guide us in 2010. I encourage you to volunteer your time when one of the committee members talks with you. It would be great to see members who haven't taken an active part in SAPA step up now.

The summer is still hot or maybe hotter! Why not do something cool and join us at SAPA meetings and Boursettes?

Program Notes

Sept 18, 2009 "Duck Stamps" by Bob Joyce

Once again, Bob is planning to Wow us with his beautiful Duck Stamps. His collection and organization is very interesting. He has some beautiful additions to his collection that are rare and interesting as well as educational.

We will all be looking forward to your program, Bob.

Oct 23, 2009 "The Alamo" by Jane Fohn

Jane is planning to share with us some of the "Alamo" Memorabilia that was not included in her exhibit on the Alamo. Knowing Jane's reputation for "spotting" the unusual and unique where the rest of us overlook treasures, this should be not only an interesting program, but a very enlightening one, also.

We are looking forward to seeing your "treasures", Jane.

Yours in philately, Pat Richmond

Program Notes - June 5, 2009 "United Nation Stamps" by Charles Shelby

Since June is the birthday month of the United Nations, Charles gave us a great peek at his UN collection.

The UN was established for the purpose of promoting world peace---unfortunately, that goal has not yet been accomplished. The name United Nations was first used in 1942. 26 countries met to set aims for the Allies. On April 25, 1945, in San Francisco, California, 4 countries (US, China, UK and USSR) were selected to draft the UN Charter. As of June 26, 1945, the Charter was approved to be effective. By October 24, 1945, 51 countries were charter members. Nicaragua was the first country to sign. 50 countries approved the charter in San Francisco with Poland signing later. The Charter was written in Chinese, English, French, Russian, and Spanish. The big four (US, UK, China, and USSR) plus France were made permanent members of the Security Council. The United Nations now has 192 members.

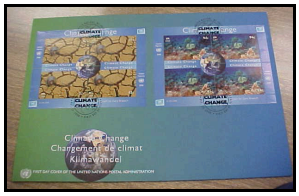
In 1946, in London, the members voted to have the permanent headquarters in the United States. Temporary headquarters were at Lake Success, New York. Later John D. Rockefeller, Jr. gave land in Manhattan for a permanent home and loaned the United Nations $65 million to build it. The UN moved into its present home in 1951 and 1952. The United Nations flag is white and blue (Charles said that he dressed for the occasion. Notice his blue shirt and he partially demonstrated another piece of clothing—not to be mentioned here—that was white. Oh, Please, Charles!!!!)

The first stamp was Scott #907 issued in 1943. It was titled, "Nations United for Victory." Scott #928 issued in 1945, was the first one to use the name "United Nations." Six years later on October 24, 1951, the first United Nations stamps went on sale. These included 6 definitives, with values of 1 cent, 1 ½ cent, 3 cents 5 cents, 25 cents and $1.00. Four airmail stamps (6 cent, 10 cent, 15 cent, and 25 cent) were issued on December 14, 1951. The first commemorative (Scott #12), showing the Veteran's War Memorial Building in San Francisco was issued on October 24, 1952. At the present the United Nations issues only definitives and commemoratives.

Their stamps are issued mainly for themes of worldwide humanitarian concerns: Peace Keeping, Drug Abuse, World Food Supplies, Human Rights, the Environment, etc. Stamps issued by the UN are valid for postage in all countries: however, they can only be MAILED in 3 buildings in the world—UN Headquarters in NY, UN building in Geneva and Vienna.

Charles shared with us several of his albums with some interesting souvenier sheets like the following:--------->

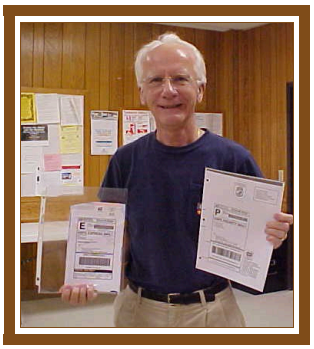
He also told us that the United Nations is the only country that published Jumbo First Day Covers the size of Maximum Cards. I was especially impressed with the following one:---------->



Other items that he shared with us were items of postal stationery, souvenir cards, and show cards. In addition to that he gave everyone who was there some UN stamps with the handout.

The presentation was very informative, interesting and entertaining. Besides that, Charles gave everyone some stamps!!! Thanks Charles, we really enjoyed your presentation! Yours in Philately, Pat Richmond

Program Notes - July 24, 2009"Modern U.S. Philately" by Fred Groth



As you can see in the picture above, Fred is displaying two of his favorite "Stampless Philately" items. Before the night he spoke to us, I told Fred I was wondering what he was going to say on July 24th. He said, "I am, too!!!" Well, I can tell you, he was just being sneaky, because he came with a briefcase full of goodies!!!!!

He began with giving all of us "stamp" lovers a proper scare. In the future, people will wonder how mail was sent in the 21st century, since stamps were issued but hardly used. Modern philately has by-passed the stamps almost completely. In the future, Fred predicts, there will be many opportunities for moving the mail, but without postage as we know it.

Fred's program covered 7 categories of "stampless" postage: 1) Meter envelopes, 2) home computer labels, 3) labels for different classes of mail, 4) labels from other agencies, 5) air shipping labels, 6) computer created postage and 7) postage to entice you to open the item.

I was surprised to see how many agencies are now participating in the "new world" philately. Neopost and Postalia as well as the regular USPS, Pitney Bowles and Hasler. There are labels for Priority, Priority from Canada with customs information, First Class, Media as well as Presort Standard. You can sit at home and print labels with postage. "Click-N-Ship" as it is known now, but it only works for Express and Priority packages. In fact, you can print your own e/USPS Signature Confirm label.

Now USPS works in conjunction with other agencies. The labels are a mixture of USPS with Smart Mail, Global Mail, UPS Mail Innovations, Data-Pac and MailExpress and RMX, Newgistics, SmartPost with Fedex and DHL. Clearly, the economy is changing and it appears to me that mailing agencies are evolving to survive. It is a "sign of the times"!

Perhaps the most ironic of all the postal items that Fred showed us were the computer created postage. For those of you who are interested in getting personal images "out there", you pay for the privilege. Fred estimated that the cost is at least DOUBLE for one to have the "privilege" of sending a personal photo. That brings to mind the old saying, "Fools names and fools faces always appear in public places!" However, that is just probably something my grandmother told me so that I would behave-----oh well, she tried.

Fred, as always, you have truly enlightened us with your collection. When can we expect an "exhibit" of these items. You could possibly SHOCK all the traditional collectors on the exhibit route. Your program was certainly an eye-opener to me. We were all enlightened and educated. Thanks, Fred Yours in Philately, Pat Richmond

"Ph"-eatured Philatelist - Charles Edward Shelby

Charles Shelby was born on March 7, 1926 in Chattanooga, Tennessee. His parents were Nellie Grace and William Earnest Shelby. He grew up in Chattanooga, graduating from Chattanooga High School in May of 1944.

On August 26, 1944, he was drafted into the Army and went to infantry basic training at Camp Blanding, Florida. In January, '45, he finished basic, sailed to Europe, and landed in Marseille, joining Co.E, 242nd Inf. Regt., 42nd Inf. (Rainbow) Division. From Jan. '45 he served in France, Germany and Austria, and served occupation duty in Austria until November 1945.

In November of 1945, he enlisted in the Regular U.S. Army and served in Germany until November of 1947. He served in the 6th U.S. Army, Presideo of San Francisco from Nov.47 to Dec.48.

He was in Berlin during the Blockade. He worked in the Intelligence Office at EUROM HQ in Berlin from January 49 to September of 1949 and in Heidleberg until January 1954. Then he went to Fort Monroe, VA until January 1955.

From January of 1955 to April of 1958, he was a military instructor in the ROTC at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore. From April to Nov of 1958, he studied Spanish at the US Army Language School, Presideo of Monterrey, Calif., after which he served with the U.S. Army Military Group in Guatamala until December of 1962.

From December of 1962 to October, 1967, Charles was an Advisor to US Reserve units in Kingsport, TN, Postal Inspector and 1st Sgt. Training Co in Fort Eustis, VA. Then in October of 1967, he went to El Salvador until 1970.

From October 1970 to April 72, he was an advisor to the Adj. Gen. at Viet Nam III Corps. Hg. Then he finally came back to San Antonio to HQ Fifth U.S. Army, Fort Sam Houston, Texas until September of 1975.

THEN of all things he says he "LOAFED" from September of 1975 to July of 1976. I don't know about those of you who are reading this, but if I had been Charles at this point, I think I would have called it "Hibernating!!!" In fact, I'm tired just typing the story, Charles. What a career and we're not even finished with you yet.

From Aug. 1976 to May 1980, Charles was a student at Mid TN State University in Murfreesboro, TN. In July of 1980, he returned to San Antonio, Texas. From Jan to Mar of 1981 he was an auditor with the Inspector General's Office for HUD in Dallas, Texas.

In April of 1981, Charles started another entirely different carreer. He became a letter carrier with the U.S.Postal Service in San Antonio. He retired from the U.S. Postal Service on May 31, 1988. Since September of 1988, he has been a volunteer at the Army Community Service at Ft. Sam Houston, Texas. He is still volunteering to this day.

Charles married Catherine Ivancik of Pittsburg, PA on January 16, 1952. Catherine was in the military for 6 years. He met her in Heidelberg while they were both intelligence officers. (What a courtship that must have been!!!!! Very Hush, Hush, you know!!)

Catherine had an interesting military career herself, even though it was short. It began in early 1942. She was in the first wave of women in the service. She was in New Guinea and the Philippines. In fact, she was in the Philippines when the Japanese surrendered. When she got out, she went to beautician's school on the GI Bill. Then she started work doing women's hair. She got so disgusted with the "whiney" women, she quit, reenlisted, went to Heidelberg, met Charles and the rest was History!!!!

Charles and Catherine had three children: Cathy Nell Gonzalez of Seguin, Texas, Charles Douglas Shelby of San Antonio, Texas and Carol Ann Williams in Minneapolis, MINN. His beloved wife Catherine passed away on February 9, 2003.

Charles says that before he entered the Army he lived in Spring City, TN; Knoxville, TN; Concord, NC; Elizabeth, NC; and Havana, Cuba. (Maybe we should get him to give some stories about his life in Cuba.---How about it, Charles! Oh well, Charles says that he was only about 4 years old, so he doesn't remember much about Cuba)

He says, "In my younger days, my passions were baseball and Kathryn Ayers (she did not know I was alive.)" Charles knew Kathryn Ayers in the 1st and 2nd grade and in Jr. High and High School. Poor guy, he kind of sounds like Charlie Brown and the "little redheaded girl."!

He began collecting stamp in the 1980's. He tries to collect everything worldwide, including singles, plate blocks, full panes, coils, First Day Covers, Commemorative Paper, Souvenir Sheets, Stationary, Postal Cards, Duck Stamps, Back of the Book and anything the agency sells. He estimates that he has upward of 500,000 stamps.

In his "spare" time, besides collecting stamps, he reads and watches TV, especially old movies.

Charles, Charles, Charles, you have worn us all out trying to keep up with your many adventures. I can see that we can have many, many more programs coming our way from you. So far, Charles you have been a true asset to San Antonio Philatelic Association and we are looking forward to many years with you.

Inaugural Saturday Boursette

July 25, 2009

A)

While Lea (C) was looking at Bob Boyd's nickel books, Bob was over at Jack's table (A) holding court with him. What do you suppose Bob was preaching to Jack about? Who knows? Then, we see in (B) that Jane was busy watching Bob and Jack yack, while Henri looked at the circuit books. But, then, what happened with (D)? How did Henri get over that there so fast? Are you the Richard roadrunner, Henri? Those folks in D) are suppose to be looking at other circuit books—I won't even try to guess what was being discussed at table. You see, just before went to that table, he was holding court with Delbert Richmond in the quilting room (E).

D)

How did this happen?

Well, it seems that all those who came to the "boursette" had a good time. All-in-all there were approximately 12 or 15 who came. Those of us who came gossiped about all of you who didn't!!!!!!! (Do you suppose that is what is happening in (D)?? On September 5th you should come join the group and find out!!!

C)

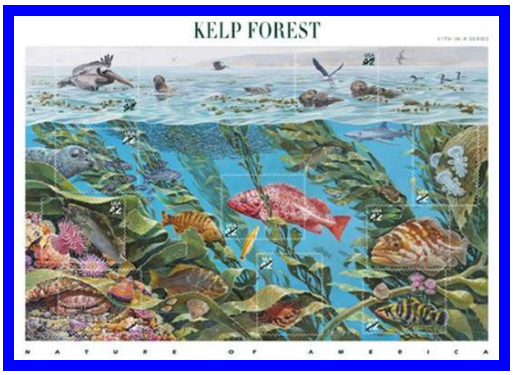
(E

P.S.—The mother and the puppies that were abandoned on church property the day of the boursette were put into foster care and were taken to the Animal Defense League on August 15th.



OCTOBER IS STAMP COLLECTING MONTH

To celebrate October as National Stamp Collecting Month the Postal Service issues the 11th stamp pane in an educational series focusing on the beauty and complexity of major U.S. plant and animal communities.

The 2009 Nature of America: Kelp Forest stamps will be dedicated at the Monterey Aquarium in Monterey, CA. The stamp pane features a kelp forest off the central California coast on the front. The back of the pane identifies 27 of the creatures from the front.

A kelp forest is a remarkable undersea ecosystem dominated by very large marine algae more commonly known as seaweeds or kelp. To illustrate the biodiversity of a kelp forest, artist John D. Dawson of Hilo, HI, depicted more than 27 different species in his colorful acrylic painting. The scene itself is imaginary and a dense grouping of creatures was necessary to illustrate as many species as possible on the stamp pane. Even so, all of the species could be encountered at or near the Monterey Bay National Marine Sanctuary, the area featured on the pane. All of the species and their interactions are appropriate and were recommended by scientists. Dawson worked under the art direction of Ethel Kessler. (from USPS Postal News, Dec. 29, 2008)
