EDITOR'S CORNER

Info About Christmas Party This Year

As usual, everyone should bring sides - salad, side dishes and desserts. We will discuss the rest on Friday the 8th, at the meeting.

Pat Richmond has promised to delight us with an entertaining game of Stamp Bingo

Kathy Beer has again organized a White Elephant Gift Exchange for our Christmas Party this year. Here are the directions for playing the game.

1) Each person who wishes to participate will bring a wrapped gift of value more than $5.00, but not to exceed $15.00. They can be philatelic or a white elephant, or anything, really.

2) Each person who brings a gift will draw a number. #1 starts by picking a gift, opening it, and showing it to everyone. #2 will then pick either a wrapped gift, or takes #1's gift. If #1 no longer has a gift, then they get to pick again. Then #3 picks either a new gift or either #1 or #2"s gift, and so on.

3) A gift may only be picked three times before it becomes "dead" and can no longer be chosen by someone else.

We had a lot of fun with this game last year, when Kathy brought all the gifts (nice ones, too - thanks, Kathy). It will be interesting to see what everyone brings this year!

WE WELCOME VISITORS

SAPA is always happy to welcome visitors. We hope you will enjoy our activities and wish to join us as members.

All visitors are welcome to purchase stamps at our auctions, bourses and bag nights. Anyone wishing to sell or trade at our meetings must be a member.

AUCTION ETIQUETTE :

Be sure to get your Bidder's number card before the auction starts. Come early and look over the lots for sale before the auction. During the auction, lots will be identified by their lot number and a brief description of the lot.

When bidding for a lot, please raise your Bidder's Number card and keep it up until you no longer wish to bid. Flipping the card up and down is confusing for the auctioneers.

Please keep extraneous conversation to a minimum. This makes it easier for everyone to hear what the auctioneer is selling, and allows the auctioneer to more easily keep track of the bidding.

While your purchases will be given to you during the auction, please wait until the end of the auction to pay for them. Your name will be called as the tallys are completed. Those who are only buying will be called first. Buyers who are also sellers will be called next. Checks made out to S.A.P.A. are acceptable. Sellers with unsold lots should be sure to pick up their lots before leaving.

Please be sure to return the Bidder's Number cards so that we can use them again in the following auctions.

We look forward to meeting you.

President's Message

Dear members, Starting in November there will be some changes the San Antonio Philatelic Association will be making to our meeting schedule and how some of our auctions are conducted.

First, the MacArthur Park Lutheran Church has informed the club that we will no longer be able to meet in the Senior Center Building on Saturday once a month for our Boursette and Library Day. We also have to remove our library from the building. It has been decided to dispose of the library (monthly auctions, blue chip auction, donation to local libraries, etc.). We will also auction off the cabinets.

On Saturday, October 26, myself and any members who can help will meet at the Senior Center Building at 10 AM to box up the books and load them and the cabinet into my truck to be taken for temporary storage. These will brought in for future auction a few books at a time. There was a listing of our library books in last month's Philatex. If there is a book you are interested in, let me know and I will bring it in.

It was also decided, that since the club will no longer have a library, there was no need to continue to meet on Saturday once a month for the Boursette and Library Day. This will save the club almost $600 that we have been paying to the church. We will continue to have our regular Friday night Boursette each month.

We also decided on some changes to the future auctions. At the regular monthly auction, the donation lots will be limited to ten items total. This will allow the club to get to the main philatelic items quicker. We will also write up new rules for the annual donation auction to limit the number of non-philatelic items that can be entered.

San Antonio & South Texas Postcard Club Corner Nov/Dec

The San Antonio and South Texas Postcard Club meetings are held on the third Monday of each month. Our next two meetings will be held on November 18 and December 16 at the La Madeleine French Bakery & Restaurant, 4820 Broadway in Alamo Heights. Meetings start at 7:00 pm, but members are encouraged to come at 6:00 to grab a meal, socialize, and share, sell, buy, or trade postcards. Each meeting includes a short presentation by a member on some segment of his or her postcard collection. At the last meeting, our Vice President, Norm Porter, showed us his collection of postcards from 1915-1916 that detailed the activities of the US Cavalry in West Texas defending against the factions of the Mexican Revolution including Pancho Villa. The postcard club is open to anyone who collects or is simply interested in postcards and there are no membership dues required to join the club. For more information about the San Antonio and South Texas Postcard Club, contact club secretary, Nancy Mabie, NRMabie@gmail.com or 210-490-9997.

Fred's Corner -- Donation Auction, 11 Oct. 2019

Compared to the first Donation Auction which was held in 2018, this auction was a disappointment. While the 2018 auction brought $585.11 for the club, this year's only brought $275.03. I believe the meager turnout at our recent auction was at least in part due to the sudden cold weather that hit San Antonio on that day. This auction had little impact on our expenses this year. We have time to consider how to return next year's auction to be an effective means to financially support our club.

Fred's Corner(part 2) -- SAPA Members: ALERT_ APS Phone Scam

The APS has sent out an email to, I presume, all APS members. It warns members of scam attempts to get members to pay up front fees for buying members collections. I have attached the message below. Read and heed! There are plenty of people out there quite willing to cheat you out of your money...even related to our hobby. While this attempt concerns the APS, future attempts could be at the TPA or even our SAPA level. If you know someone who is not on this mailing list, please share the APS alert with him. Fred Groth

Stockholmia 2109

A Once-In-A-Lifetime Experience

by Bob Bouvier

I have recently returned from Stockholmia 2019 and would like to share what I experienced and learned from it.

First. I want to say that I strongly recommend the experience of attending major philatelic shows as often as possible. Some are held annually and others less often but usually at least once every ten years. Stockholmia 2019 stands out as an exceptional event. It was created to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the Royal Philatelic Society London. Naturally, the RPSL had a major role in determining the scope, length, dealer complement and theme of the show in addition to the jury and celebratory events. It was remarkable if not unique. The planning for this event spanned four years and early on several venues around the world were considered. Using criteria that were only briefly explained to attendees, through a process of elimination, Stockholm, Sweden was selected.

There were several standard elements to the show: judged exhibits, a dealer bourse, and presentations on a wide range of subjects Uniquely, there were three banquets available to attendees. The first was held in Alfred Noble's dynamite factory, now an event venue. [insert photo 1] The second, open to all and black tie, was the Roll of Distinguished Philatelists (RDP) investiture (that I did not attend). The third, also black tie, was the grand banquet in the Vasa Museum, in the shadow of the 17th-century ship of war that sank when launched, was raised not that many years ago and is displayed in the building. The banquets provided opportunities for accompanying spouses (my Leslie included) to enjoy some of the events.

Stockholmia 2019 was officially declared open by the King of Sweden, Carl XVI Gustaf who briefly addressed attendees in the venue's auditorium. [insert photo 2] The show actually had two royal patrons, Queen Elizabeth II, representing the "Royal" appellation in the name of the RPSL and King Carl XVI Gustaf. The show occupied four levels in the Conference Center. [insert photo 3] In planning my activities for the five days of the event I gave priority to visiting the dealer booths. I was struck by the prominence of Scandinavian dealers and limited stocks brought by all the dealers, an unfortunate circumstance. There were more than the usual numbers of booths taken by auction houses and philatelic organizations. The RPSL had a large section of the third level where one had an opportunity to speak with the society's staff and senior leadership (and, as a Patron, come away with a box of chocolates!). The new headquarters building on Abchurch Lane was a popular subject and quite a lot of effort went into displays and description of all the functions that it will support.

Auction houses were present in greater numbers than I've seen before and many of the great names were there: Corinphilia, Harmer, Rumsey, Feldman, Siegal, Kelleher, Stanley Gibbons, Spink, Gardner…. They all had tantalizing displays of treasures they sold in the past and others coming up for sale in the near future. Catalogues were available free for the taking in most cases. I did not attend any auctions in person; there was very little in my areas of interest.

There were about 35 dealers with stock, many of them Scandinavian, but nearly all brought a limited sample supplemented in some cases with printed lists. I managed to find a few stamps to add to my collection but not as many as I expected.

There were scores of programs offered for all five days with a wide variety of subjects. I attended just one, by Karl Louis, on the technique he developed to identify repairs. He has spent over 30 years collecting thousands of images of rare items from prior sale catalogues and other sources going back decades and compares them with the present appearance of the item being examined. Repairs were obvious in the samples he showed us, some so expertly done that common detection techniques would have missed them.

The number of pages in the 350 exhibits was far too large for me to examine them all. I limited myself to exhibits in my areas of interest: GB and BNA. The frames stood absolutely erect which made viewing the lower pages more difficult. Still, seeing rarities in person was satisfying to say the least. Some auction houses also exhibited classic rarities about to be sold, a rare opportunity to see them on display.

The banquet at the Vasa Museum was the venue for awarding medals to the best exhibits in 9 classes. Each category was defined and explained, and medals awarded according to points awarded by the judges. The grand award was determined by points awarded by the judges by category. Postal History had the most points by far and consequently the top vote getter in that category got the grand award. He was Daniel Ryterband and his exhibit was titled "A Country Divided: Effects of the American Civil War on the Mails".

Before I close, I should mention that the organizers did a fine job in providing printed guides and catalogues. The Exhibition Catalogue was a full inch thick and printed on coated paper. The Exhibition Information and Program Guide was produced to the same standard but was mercifully thin and never left my hand the entire time I was there. Amazingly, the Palmares Guide (judging and awards) was prepared in time (again to the same production standards) to provide everyone attending the ceremony to have a copy.
